Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Status

- 1) ☒ Responsive to communication(s) filed on 06 June 2006.
- 2a) ☒ This action is FINAL. 2b) ☐ This action is non-final.

DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The amendment overcomes the claim rejections under 35 U.S.C. 112 made in the last Office action.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1, 2, and 4-7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Smith (US 3,661,333).

With regard to claim 1, Smith discloses a feed device capable of use with a hammer mill including:

1. a generally uniformly cylindrical feed roller (R), the feed roller (R) having a longitudinal axis (32) and a roller surface (30);
2. a plurality of gripper teeth (48a, 48b, 52) positioned in rows along the roller surface and extending from a left and right lateral edge of the feed roller (R) toward a mid-circumferential center plane (Figure 1)
3. every row of the gripper teeth (48a, 48b, 52) positioned non perpendicular to the mid-circumferential center plane; and

4. the angle of the rows on the left side being equal and opposite to the angle of the rows on the right side (Figure 1).

With regard to claim 2, Smith discloses rows that are generally parallel to each other (Figure 1).

With regard to claim 4, Smith discloses rows extending from the left and right lateral edges substantially to the mid-circumferential center plane.

With regard to claim 5, Smith discloses a non-congruent center portion (52) of gripper teeth (48a, 48b, 52) rows.

With regard to claim 6, Smith discloses rows of teeth angled 30 to 60 degrees (Figure 1).

With regard to claim 7, Smith discloses rows of teeth (48a, 48b, 52) in a direction not parallel to a line extending radially from the longitudinal axis of the feed roller (Figure 1).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claim 3, 8, and 9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Smith (US 3,661,333) in view of Peterson et al. (US 4,721,139).

Claims 3, 8, and 9 call for teeth repeatedly arranged in rows of non-uniform teeth heights. In a closely related art, Peterson discloses a feed device with teeth repeatedly (column 2, lines 66-68) arranged in rows of non-uniform teeth heights (column 2, lines 60-62) in order to better grip feed material. Therefore, it would have been obvious to one skilled in the art at the time the invention was made to provide Smith with teeth arranged repeatedly in rows of non-uniform teeth heights in order to better grip feed material, as taught by Peterson.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed on June 6, 2006 with respect to claims 1-9 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
